

WELCOME TO "A WALK WITH THE 35TH"

Back to History Index | 35th Infantry Regiment ASSN Home | Contact

Russell M Brown Collection as provided by Paul Roales. Russell was a member of Headquarters Company, 35th Infantry Regiment in 1918. His photo can also be found in the 1918 Yearbook.

Russell M Brown, far right back row: Photo caption: "Taken while the 35th Inf. was stationed at Camp Stephen D Little, Nogales, Ariz. This is our barracks. Aug. 1918."

Russell M Brown in front of the Headquarters Company building Camp Stephen D Little

Headquarters 35th Infantry Regiment at Camp Stephen D Little, AZ 1918

Russell M Brown at Headquarters 35th Infantry Regiment at Camp Stephen D Little, 1919

Uncaptioned, but looks to be at the stockyard for the Camp.

"James Matt. Crump"

"Daniel J Cullen Jan 16/19 util Det. San Antonio Texas. Camp Travis."

Russell M Brown sitting astride a mule in front of what looks to be a border marker between Mexico and the US.

Russell M Brown: Nice photo of Pvt Brown with his rifle.

Russell M Brown home and wearing his 'Victory Medal' and standing proudly beside his father. With the war's sudden end, many members of the 35th Infantry Regiment were mustered out of the Army and allowed to return to their homes.